

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Members of the Chapter:

If you will look up the official reports for the last year you will find that Mr. Jones had to contribute about twenty-three dollars toward the expenses of publishing the BULLETIN. In a personal letter Mr. Jones informs me the deficit this year will be about forty dollars. We all realize that it would be impossible for the Chapter to keep in existence without some means of communication. The BULLETIN furnishes the means needed. As the membership dues are not enough to meet the expense of publication, let us each contribute a little to make up the present deficit, so as not to put the burden too much on one. Are we not willing to blot from our account book this item ; "Contributed by the editor of the BULLETIN—forty dollars"? Let us also try to secure a large enough subscription list to make the BULLETIN self-supporting.

Fraternally,

MILTON JUNCTION, WIS.

G. M. BURDICK.

[NOTE.—The reason why this year's deficit will be larger than last year's is, first, because we began last year with a little over seventeen dollars on hand and, second, because this year a special BULLETIN has been issued, costing about ten dollars more than an ordinary number.—ED.]

ERRATA.

The following corrections should be made in the note on the breeding of Ruby-throated Hummingbird, p. 62. In line two read "May 29, 1896," and in line eight read "May 29, 1887."
